Pastor's Corner

Greetings,

Continuing our reflection on A Church on the Move, the author of this book suggests that a church on the move needs to go from Learned Faith to a Lived Faith. He states that the success of a Parish, therefore, is not to be measured by the level of activity taking place on parish grounds, but rather by the extent to which the Catholic faith is being lived and practiced in homes, in the community, and in the world. Our pastoral leadership needs to shift to supporting Catholic practices that take place daily in homes, at work, at school, and in the community –practices that help people learn to find God in all things.

The goal of a parish is not get more people in the pews but to get the people who are in the pews to go forth and transform the world. The purpose of going to church is to be nourished and equipped to go forth- to be sent.

What a challenge we have ahead of us! Let's pray that our good God helps us to go into the world fully equipped with practices that enable us to be transformed and to transform the world we engage with.

Continuando con nuestra reflexión de Una Iglesia en Movimiento, el autor de este libro sugiere que una iglesia en movimiento necesita pasar de una fe aprendida a una fe vivida. Afirma que el éxito de una parroquia no se puede medir por el nivel de actividad que haya en ella, sino por la fe que se expresa y se vive en los hogares, en la comunidad y en el mundo. Nuestro liderazgo pastoral necesita moverse hacia un apoyo más constante a la prácticas que se suscitan en la vida diaria en los hogares, en el trabajo, en la escuela, y en la comunidad –prácticas que ayuden a la gente a encontrar a Dios en todas las cosas.

La meta de una parroquia no es tener más gente en las bancas, sino que la gente que está ya en la iglesia vaya, salga de la iglesia y transforme el mundo. El propósito de ir a la iglesia es para nutrirse y equiparse para ser enviados.

Qué gran reto tenemos frente a nosotros! Oremos a nuestro buen Dios que nos ayude a ir al mundo y plenamente equipados con esas prácticas que no ayuden a transformarnos y a transformar el mundo en el que vivimos.

Paz,

Fr Ignacio

ASH
WEDNESDAY

Return Palms by February 11th to be used for Ash Wednesday

Por favor coloque ramos o palmas secas aquí serán usadas para Miércoles de ceniza

Ashes are imposed on our foreheads to remind us that we will return to dust and that we are not of this world but are made for eternity with God

WHERE DO THE ASHES COME FROM?

The ashes come from THE BLESSED PALMS used during the PALM SUNDAY celebration of the previous year

WHY THE ASHES?

The imposition of ashes symbolizes REPENTANCE, CONTRITION and PENANCE for all our SINS. OUR LORD calls us to TURN AWAY FROM SIN and RENEW OUR CHRISTIAN LIFE, responding to his LOVING INVITATION TO CONVERSION, most especially during this LENTEN season, through PRAYER, SACRAMENTS (esp. of CONFESSION), FASTING & ABSTINENCE, and WORKS OF MERCY, so as to prepare ourselves for and benefit from HIS PASSION, DEATH AND RESURRECTION which we commemorate during the HOLY WEEK.

Gospel Meditation

For most of us, the dynamic between prayer and action is imperfect. Breakfast needs to be made and the kids dressed. Work demands our energy and additional responsibilities fill our evenings and weekends. Then there's the football game or a new TV series to stream. After all, don't we need to relax? We're all busy. But just imagine Jesus' situation in today's Gospel. He heals Peter's mother-in-law, drives out demons, and cures diseases late into the night. With very little sleep, he arises before dawn to capture some peace and quiet, only to find "those who were with him pursued him." How often do we feel pursued by the harried commitments, even when we try to seek rest? Perhaps we can learn something from the response of Jesus.

Jesus models two key things: the essential nature of prayer and the essential call of vocation. "He went off to a deserted place, where he prayed." Despite inevitable exhaustion, Jesus prioritizes time with the Father. We might not have easy access to deserts and mountaintops, but today's Gospel challenges us to take intentional time set apart for God. We can designate a "prayer chair" in a corner of our home or leave a little earlier to pick our children up from school so we can snatch time in a nearby chapel. We can pray the rosary on our commute or take the dog for a long walk in silence.

However, when the Apostles arrive, Jesus doesn't linger overlong in the deserted place or make an excuse for why he can't return with his friends. Jesus is true to his calling. He continues on in his state of life, serving the people nearest to him. Like Jesus, we are invited to set intentional time for communion with God so that we can be refreshed and empowered for our communion with others.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

¡Tómame Señor de la mano y levántame! Te necesito, cúrame de mis enfermedades y dolencias, deja que me apiñe dentro de tu corazón. Que a partir de hoy sea yo una persona aliviada, y liberada, y así, poder luchar contigo en las adversidades de la vida. Que sea portavoz de la Buena Nueva, que luche contra todo tipo de mal, tanto físico como espiritual. Que el paso por la vida sea como el tuyo--hacer el bien--- que lo que toco ya no sea igual, que se transforme en misericordia. "Y todo lo hago por el Evangelio, porque quiero tener también mi parte de él." (1 Corintios 9:23). San Pablo, es un ejemplo a seguir en su desbordante actividad misionera. Desde su camino en Damasco él se sintió atrapado por Cristo. Proclamó el amor, compasión y misericordia de Dios dada en Cristo para todo el mundo, sin dejar nada para el mismo.

En el Evangelio Jesús sanó a la suegra de Pedro con un acto muy personal. "Jesús se acercó y, tomándola de la mano, la levanto. Se le quitó la fiebre y se puso a atenderlos. (Marcos 1:31). ¿Cuántas veces nos ha tomado Jesús de la mano para sanarnos? ¿De qué forma hemos servido a los demás después de sanar? Antes y ahora, la gente acude a Jesús para mostrarle sus necesidades, cualquiera que sean. Una enfermedad, un accidente, un divorcio, o falta de trabajo. También se acude a Él, para agradecer sus bendiciones. La respuesta a este Evangelio es dar testimonio con nuestra vida de lo que Jesús ha hecho con nosotros y por el mundo entero. ¡Amén!
