St. Ignatius of Loyola (Produced 2016)

The Movie is 126 minutes long and it is Not Rated

Refreshments will be provided—Bring your lawn chair—if weather permits, it will be shown outdoors! In English—with Spanish Subtitles

This modern and very human take on the story of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, often called "The Saint of Second Chances" is an incisive and thrilling look at the life of the real man behind the legend. In his lifelong quest to become the heroic knight of his fantasies, Ignatius stares death in the face again and again, having his leg shattered by a cannonball in battle; driven to near suicide by his inner demons; finding himself imprisoned, accused of being an illuminati; and finally finding his life in the hands of the Inquisition. Through it all, he would come to see the hand of God working in his life, shaping the self-obsessed sinner into the loyal and passionate soldier-saint

We are all busy and by Sunday we pause to give our Lord one hour at Mass.

Then every Tuesday at 7:00PM at St. John Vianney in the St. Luke's room, come and meet with fellow parishioners as they go over the readings and Gospel of the upcoming Sunday so that you will get more from the readings and Mass.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Peter had expressed horror at the prophetic words announcing that Jesus' suffering and death were imminent. Peter didn't want his friend and teacher to undergo this terrible ordeal. He wanted "no such thing" ever to happen to his Lord. But Jesus sharply rebuked Peter's response, comparing it to that of the tempter, Satan. Just as temptation becomes an obstacle to our doing what is right, so Peter was presenting an obstacle to Christ's mission. Suffering was part of it, like it or not. To deny this difficult element of Christ's work would be to deny the bigger plan of God. And so Jesus rightly told Peter that he wasn't thinking like God thinks.

Of course, since we are human, it's only natural that we should think as human beings do. We, like Peter, tend to recoil at the idea of facing unpleasant or painful circumstances. But clearly God sometimes allows such situations to take place for a greater good. Jesus understood this; even as he prophesied about his death, he also mentioned his resurrection.

Today's Gospel challenges us to think "as God does" by holding both of these elements together. Unlike Peter who only focused on the sad part of the story, we are called to recognize the Resurrection on the other side of the cross, and to be willing to do whatever is necessary to get there. In fact, Jesus tells us later in this Gospel to take up our cross and follow him. That is not the "human" way of thinking. It's the Godly way. Our natural response is to reject and scorn the trials and tribulations that we face, but Jesus wants us to embrace them patiently and "come after" him on the (sometimes rough) road to eternal life.

22^{er} Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

A partir de este domingo el Evangelio de Mateo toma otro rumbo, marcado por el primer anuncio de la Pasión y el rechazo de Pedro ante Jesús de no aceptarla. Por esta razón, Jesús dedica tiempo exclusivamente para sus discípulos con el fin de catequizarlos nada más y nada menos sobre el signo y el valor de la cruz, preparándolos de ese modo para los acontecimientos dramáticos que sucederían en Jerusalén. Es evidente que la reacción de Pedro sea de rebelarse ante la situación. Hoy día, cabe que reflexionemos si Jesús estuviera físicamente presente ante usted y le explicara lo mismo que a sus discípulos ¿cuál sería su reacción ante la futura suerte de Jesús? Acaso no esperaría algo diferente para su maestro. ¡No la cruz!

Ser discípulo es seguir a Cristo en el camino de la cruz y esto puede ser la enfermedad, sufrimiento, lucha interior y sobre todo responsabilidades diarias que tenemos que realizar. Ante estas situaciones tenemos que ver los acontecimientos con los ojos de Dios. La palabra de Dios hoy nos invita a perder la vida por el Evangelio. Es decir, desviviéndose por su familia, hijos e hijas, empleados y compañeros de trabajo. Desvelándose por cuidar a los enfermos o a sus padres ancianos que están con ustedes en casa y muchas veces son vistos como carga pesada. Jesús clarifica de la siguiente manera. "El que quiera venir conmigo, que renuncie a sí mismo, que tome su cruz y me siga" (Mt 16, 24). ¿Nos dejaremos seducir como el profeta Jeremías? ¿Escucharemos la llamada a seguir a Jesús en las situaciones de nuestra vida? La respuesta es individual, pero la acción puede ser apoyada en familia y comunidad.
