Pastor's Corner

Confirmation Class of 2017

Greetings,

Here is the picture of those who received Confirmation last Saturday Sept. 16th. These young men and women are the present of our Church. May the gifts the Holy Spirit bestowed upon them be tangible in their own lives and in the lives of this Parish Community.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love!

Aquí está una foto de los que recibieron el Sacramento de la Confirmación el Sábado 16 de Septiembre. Estos jóvenes son el presente de nuestra Iglesia. Que los dones que el Espíritu Santo derramó sobre ellos, sean tangibles en sus propias vidas y en la vida de nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Ven Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles, y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor!

St. Ignatius of Loyola (Produced 2016)

The Movie is 126 minutes long and it is Not Rated
Refreshments will be provided—Bring your lawn chair—if weather permits, it will be shown outdoors! In English—with Spanish Subtitles

This modern and very human take on the story of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, often called "The Saint of Second Chances" is an incisive and thrilling look at the life of the real man behind the legend. In his lifelong quest to become the heroic knight of his fantasies, Ignatius stares death in the face again and again, having his leg shattered by a cannonball in battle; driven to near suicide by his inner demons; finding himself imprisoned, accused of being an illuminati; and finally finding his life in the hands of the Inquisition. Through it all, he would come to see the hand of God working in his life, shaping the self-obsessed sinner into the loyal and passionate soldier-saint

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

True love does not measure itself against the love of others. If I am truly in love with God there is no need to compare myself with others or succumb to jealousy if others appear closer than I or because I have loved longer. Authentic love does not consider benefits or privileges. It simply desires to be in the presence of the One who is loved. God invites all of his children into a relationship with him. It does not matter when along our life's journey we accept that invitation. It is only important that we do. In our Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard promised the usual daily wage to everyone, regardless of what time each started working. God promises love and eternal life to all who enter into relationship with him. It does not matter when. This is God's pure merciful gift. It is God's to give as God desires.

Everyday Stewardship

As everyday stewards, I hope that each of us try to live daily lives of generosity for the glory of God. I hope that we are all working to cultivate characteristics of a good everyday steward so that we can grow in maturity of faith and draw closer to Christ. But if we could accurately see on a magical computer spreadsheet how everyone else around us was living life would it impact how we lived out our stewardship way of life? If we found out that others weren't trying as hard as we were or they were not nearly as generous would it give us reason to pause?

In the workplace, school, and general life, people can easily look around and choose to adapt what they are doing to match more closely what others are doing. Why give work more hours if no one else is willing? Why give a 20% tip to a waiter if you suspect everyone else is only giving 15%? Why spend hours studying for a test when no one else is taking it that seriously?

Our lives of stewardship should never be measured against that of others. Even though we are all called to give all we are and all we have to God, each one of us is unique in our response to that call. Instead of any type of comparison that may temper our generosity, we should hold to the truth that the more we give of ourselves the more fulfilled we will feel. Also, as we grow in our relationship with God, the more we will want to glorify him. Stewardship is not a competition. It is a call to serve God without counting the cost.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

El amor verdadero no se puede medir en comparación con el amor de otros. Si verdaderamente estoy enamorado de Dios no hay necesidad de compararme con otros o caer en la envidia si otros parecen estar más cerca de él. El amor auténtico no considera privilegios ni beneficios. Simplemente desea estar en la presencia de él que es amado. Dios invita a todos sus hijos a que tengan una relación con él. No importa cuándo aceptemos esta invitación, solamente es importante que lo hagamos. En el Evangelio de hoy, el viñador prometió el sueldo diario a cada trabajador sin considerar a qué hora cada uno comenzó a trabajar. Dios promete amor y vida eterna a los que están en una relación con él. No importa cuándo. Este es el regalo puro y misericordioso de Dios. Es para que Dios lo dé como él desee.

La corresponsabilidad diaria

Como discípulos corresponsables diarios, espero que cada uno de nosotros tratemos de vivir vidas llenas de generosidad de la gloria de Dios. Espero que todos trabajemos para cultivar características de un discípulo corresponsable para que crezcamos en madurez de fe y nos acerquemos más a Cristo. Si pudiéramos ver exactamente cómo los demás viven, ¿afectaría la manera en que nosotros vivimos nuestras vidas de corresponsabilidad? Si nos daríamos cuenta de que los demás no estaban poniendo su mejor esfuerzo o que no son tan generosos como nosotros, ¿nos daría razón de tomar un descanso?

En el lugar de trabajo, la escuela y en la vida general, la gente fácilmente puede considerar su alrededor y adaptar su forma de ser para que sea más similar a los que lo rodean. ¿Por qué trabajar más si los demás no lo hacen? ¿Por qué darle el 20 por ciento al mesero si supone que los demás sólo dan el 15 por ciento? ¿Por qué estudiar para un examen que los demás no le dan importancia?

Nuestras vidas de corresponsabilidad nunca deben ser comparadas con las vidas de otros. Aunque estemos llamados a dar todo lo que somos a Dios, cada uno de nosotros respondemos de una manera única. En vez de compararnos, debemos recordar que lo más que damos de nosotros mismos, lo más que nos sentimos satisfechos. A través del crecimiento de nuestra relación con Dios, vamos a querer glorificarlo más. La corresponsabilidad no es una competencia. Es un llamado a servir a Dios sin contar el costo.
